EL AVIADOR

Forward

According to Mr. Webster's Dictionary a year is the time in which any planet completes a revolution around the sun.

During the earth's journey around the sun in this year of 1957-1958, the world felt the ever-present fears and loves.

This old world began a new adventure as the Russian government launched the first man-made satellite into the earth's orbit—the first steps into outer space. The Russian Sputnik was praised by the world as a great scientific accomplishment, and the United States was once again reminded of the race it must maintain to insure world peace. The never-say-die scientists in the United States worked to launch a man-made moon late in 1957 and the world knew we weren't sitting on our old tarnished laurels.

The peace of the world was insecure with troubles in the Middle and Far East ever present.

In California the gubernatorial elections were held pitting William Knowland against Pat Brown. While a bitter battle raged on for the governorship, ex-governor Goodwin Knight was running for the United States Senate.

Here in Norwalk, the once small community now began to take pride in itself and by an overwhelming majority became the City of Norwalk.

That old trouble sickness showed itself in a new form called Asiatic Flu, which caused widespread absences from employment and school.

Excelsior moved along with the rest of the world taking all of these problems in stride. At the beginning of the year the student body showed a spirit it had never shown before, when over 1700 student body cards were sold. Pilotville had its own problems to deal with; operating on a limited budget meant a lack of funds, but this didn't hurt the spirit of the Student Body, which reached an all-time high. Classes were crowded with over 2700 enrolled, but our minds grew, too. Seniors' hearts were palpitating with the unknown they were about to face in an adult world, but they were also full of joy for they had the memories of a wonderful school. Minds grew, spirits were higher than ever, hearts were full of joy and we at Excelsior began to develop our futures.

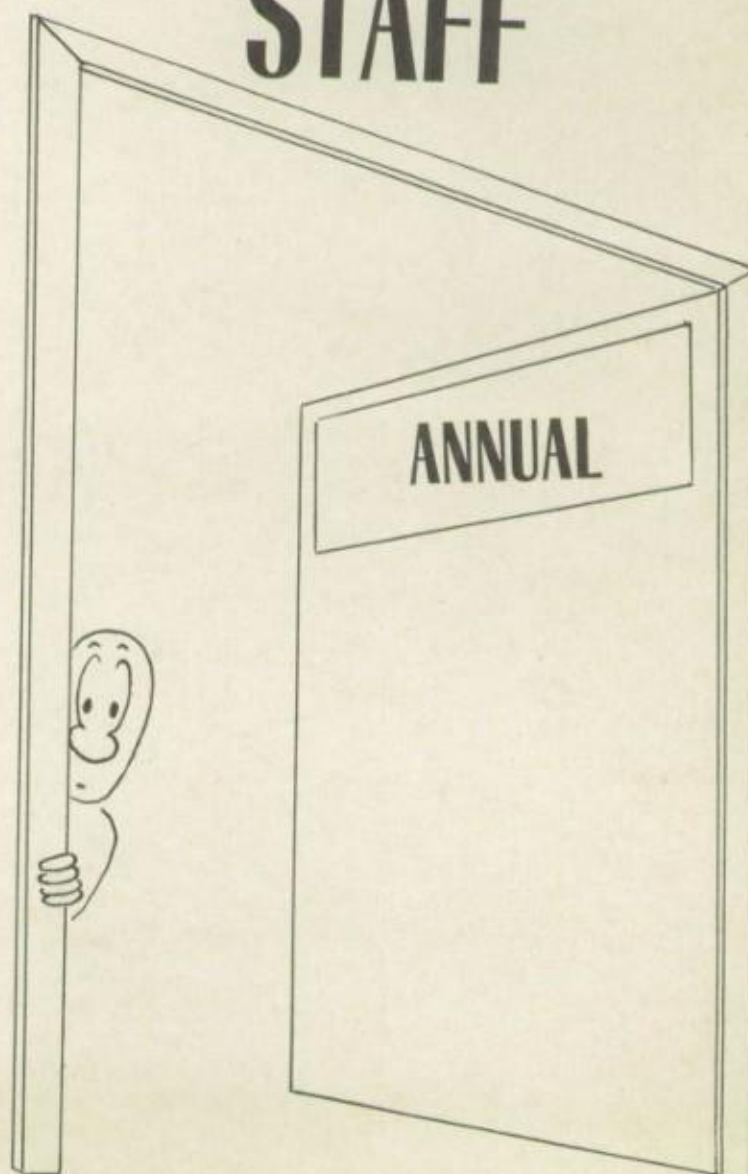

The Excelsior Student Body became a model community in itself, showing it could deal with world, national, and local problems as well.

Graduates of Excelsior have shown their leadership abilities in various universities and colleges throughout the nation. It is for these reasons that the Annual Staff feels that it would be most fitting that the theme of the 1958 El Aviator be THE STUDENT BODY.

DEDICATION

"And still they stared
And still the wonder grew
How one small head
Could carry all he knew . . ."

—Oliver Goldsmith

Thousands of men achieve fame in their life, but their fame diminishes after they have passed on. There are some who gave to the world something more valuable than fame . . . great minds. Excelsior is very proud that one of these men has devoted his career to teaching at Pilotville.

This man has given over three decades of his time and knowledge lodged in his remarkable mind, to thousands who have passed through his classrooms.

He has spurred on the hopeful boy or girl seeking to find an answer to his problems with his friendly advice and understanding. Those he has benefited shall never forget him.

Because it is appropriate in this year of scientific advances, and for his tireless years of shaping scientific minds, the Annual Staff feels it a great honor to dedicate the 1958 EL AVIADOR to Mr. Teauvey Urley Hawley.

ADMINISTRATION

As The Controlling

MR. RICHARD GAHR
District Superintendent

Ending his first full year as District Superintendent was Mr. Richard Gahr, former principal of Excelsior High School. A few of his new duties were: To represent the district in governmental and professional relations and to give a complete educational, fiscal, and physical operations report of each of the schools in the district to the Board of Trustees.

The superintendent was the chief executive officer of the board and was charged with the duty of administering powers and responsibilities delegated to him by the board.

Student Body

MR. ALONZO VALENTINE
Principal

Mr. Alonzo Valentine became the Principal of Excelsior High School this past year. He replaced Mr. Richard Gahr, who is now Superintendent of Schools.

His main duties were to direct the administrative officers, and teachers, provide an educational program for the entire student body, and meet with the Parent-Teachers Association.

He is a genial man with whom everyone enjoys talking and working.

A familiar face was seen in a new position this year. Miss Lucile Tombs, after coming to Excelsior in 1928 in the business education department, and being found in 1939 as Dean of Girls was known in 1957 as assistant principal. Being responsible for the well-coordinated and varied activities available to the student-body, she has earned the appreciation of all for this and for the activity program this past year.

MISS LUCILE TOMBS
Assistant Principal

These Counseled—

Mrs. Helen Bryan held the position of Dean of Girls of Excelsior this past year. In previous years, she has worked in the girls' physical education department.

During the year Mrs. Bryan's duties were to help the girls with their major problems and to direct many of the activities during the year.

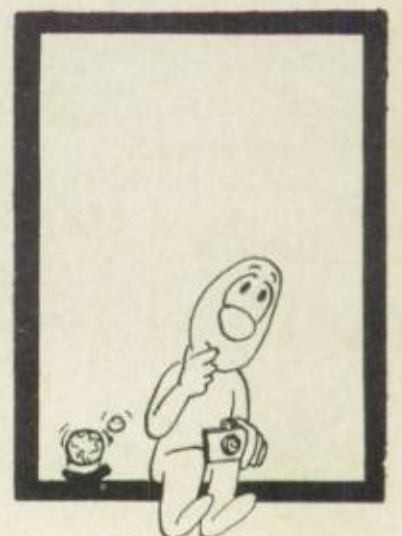

MRS. HELEN BRYAN
Dean of Girls

In an office new to him, Mr. Richard James served the student body as Dean of Boys. Among his duties was the counseling of boys who had personal problems. He approved the admission and withdrawal of all boys to and from school. He supervised in conjunction with other members of the faculty all the Boys' League activities.

MR. RICHARD JAMES
Dean of Boys

And Guided Us—

MR. KEITH WEST
Director of Attendance

If you are a ditcher you'd better watch out, because the attendance office will get you! For you see, among the many duties of the Attendance office was to check the whereabouts of students who were reported absent.

Helping the students of the student body solve their problems were the four counselors. Among their duties were: To arrange the programs of the students, and to advise them on different jobs and colleges.

One would think that the teachers of Excelsior would be tired of talking to the students in the classes all day, but they aren't! They have their own organization where they talk with one another and discuss problems of their teaching profession.

The association is composed of the faculty and administration of the school and it coordinates planning for the betterment of both their relations with each other and the students.

Cafeteria Workers

Taking Mr. R. Eissler's place as Flight Deck Supervisor this past year was Mr. Cleavinger.

Mrs. Lee, Flight Deck Manager, worked hard to keep it running smoothly. The student workers are divided into two divisions, district and student body. The district provided hot sandwiches and the student body has charge of the confection end of the Flight Deck.

Secretaries

Typewriters, shorthand notebooks, files, gym equipment, books and authors were each tools of the trade for individual secretaries at Excelsior.

The administrative officers could not have kept the records of the students in order if it had not been for their efficient secretaries.

The Physical Education Students will well remember the assistants who had their equipment ready.

In the library students and teachers alike, were aided by the librarian and her secretary. They had the job of keeping the books in order.

As you can see, the school could not have functioned without our secretaries.

In order to keep the rooms and campus clean there was a staff of twelve men under the direction of Mr. Ben Stanfield.

No doubt you've seen the little yellow sweeper putting along each day to keep our walks clean. Besides keeping our campus neat, the custodians fill many a student's special need, such as cutting that lock off your book locker because you lost or misplaced the key. These are only a few tasks our custodians performed.

Student Body Officers

Larry Redman
President

Through the efforts of the first semester student body officers the sale of student body cards was promoted and, as a result, 1700 cards were sold, reaching the highest point in many a year. The body's spirit was awakened by assemblies, rallies, football and basketball games and special programs.

All debts were paid and records kept, and all legislation of the first semester passed through this office.

Chosen by the Student Body, they worked hard to fulfill the promises they made during their campaign.

For the remainder of the school year, the Student Body Officers made the campus "buzz" with activity. With the help of the Director of Activities, assemblies were planned and presented. The Vice-President presided over the Student Court.

First Semester Student Council

The council was called to order by Pat Vigil, Speaker of the House. One representative from each council class attends all meetings and reports back to his class. These representatives met once a month, at this time many problems were worked out.

First Semester Student Judges

Carol Smith, Vice-President, and head of Student Judges, completes a very successful semester.

The judges were selected from their council class on the basis of citizenship, co-operation, and grades.

The judges fined the students points according to the seriousness of crime committed.

And Plans

Second Semester Student Council

Student Council (now known as the House of Representatives) elected Martha Gamboa as Speaker of the House during second semester.

As the House of Representatives, they debated and passed important bills.

Our Various

First Semester Leadership

As a body carries out its functions, each part has its duty. The mind controls the action of the body. The Leadership class deals in this way with the Excelsior Student body. This group consisted of Student Body Officers and organizational representatives.

First Semester Rally Committee

Working hard to produce and keep up school spirit was the Rally Committee.

The committee, under the leadership of Ginger Russell, Director of Activities, set up rallies and put up gimmicks to raise the school spirit.

ROW 1: G. Russell. ROW 2: C. Adams, J. Scott, J. Cox, L. Redman, R. Hoover, D. Abrams, D. Nunley.

Many Functions

Second Semester Leadership

"It has been moved and seconded, . . . Leadership shall be known as the Senate." So it went during Second Semester Leadership (Senate) as clubs and student body representatives passed and planned school activities for a unified STUDENT BODY.

Second Semester Rally Committee

A busy semester of planning for many Pilot activities was carried on by this spirited group. The Rally Committee extended all its imagination and ingenuity in promoting publicity for rallies, dances, and various sports activities.

ROW 1: J. Vencovsky, G. Russell, D. Nunley, H. Hudson, R. Hoover. ROW 2: J. Eldridge, A. Pitman, J. Schultz, S. Loft, Mr. Castiglione, A. Dunn. ROW 3: C. Bridge, M. Schlarman, C. Adams.

Unlike many of the Excelsior activities, Girls' League cabinet met during the summer to plan the year's activities.

The highlights of the year were the two turnabout dances, Beachcombers' Ball and The Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Lela Chavez, President, and Mrs. Helen Bryan, advisor, worked tirelessly with the remainder of the cabinet.

Boys League Cabinet

ROW 1: R. Burrell, F. Munoz, H. Gray, B. Richardson.

Boys' League President
Harold Gray

Oh! To see what went on during a Boys' League assembly.

This was in the minds of all girls who wondered at the new spark this organization had shown this past year. New and different activities accounted for their success.

Many a girl at Excelsior wished she could have been a Boys' League Usher, but they couldn't quite persuade Mr. James to let them keep all those big boys quiet.

Aiding the school during assemblies and on campus, the Ushers maintained order during these activities.

Worked

Girls League Ways and Means

The Girls' League Ways and Means Committee was formed to find ways to build a bigger and better Girls' League and Student Body by finding ways to raise money in order to promote a better union between the Girls' League and the student body. This year's Ways and Means Committee was headed by Judy Farmer.

ROW 1: R. Miller, B. Garcia, E. Gehricke, J. Farmer, J. Millsap, B. Baker, J. Takahashi, S. Owens, C. Crabtree. ROW 2: J. Coles, K. Basse, J. Miglore, J. McDonald, S. Rindfleisch, D. Edwards, R. Girls League Friendship Committee

The Girls' League Friendship Committee was formed for the purpose of promoting friendship between every girl at Excelsior and the student body. The Friendship Committee also played the part of "big sister" to all new and freshman girls. Working as Chairman of Friendship Committee this year was Judy Cox.

ROW 1: J. Gasio, Mrs. McCarthy, Advisor; J. Cox. ROW 2: K. Ennis, D. Leville, S. Cook, S. Cates, B. Nosacka, L. Bates, B. Rape. ROW 3: C. Barnes, C. Leach, I. Neeley, H. Spone, J. Everett, J. This year, once again, for the second straight year, Judy Rommel again became Queen of Posture Week. Selected as the girl on campus with the best posture, Judy had runners-up in every class. Representing the seniors was Genevieve McPheeters, juniors were Ann Pirtle and Pat Lawrence, and freshman representative was Sandy Katkoff.

This year's Varsity Club was as it has been in past years composed of lettermen from all varsity teams: football, basketball, track and baseball.

Under the direction of Richard Dicker and his cabinet the club enjoyed a successful year.

The ingenuity and imagination of the past year's new Ways and Means Committee has provided the Excelsior Student Body with sufficient funds to meet its needs. This active group conducted a successful year of various fund-raising campaigns.

Distinguished by their familiar green jackets, the Command Pilots have completed another successful year of service to the student body. This selected group of young men was responsible for keeping order on the campus and at many special school functions.

Boys' State

Wouldn't it be interesting to "play" politics? That's what goes on at Boys' State and Girls' State every year. All state, county, and city officials are actually elected by the students divided as Tories and Whigs during the organization of a model government. The "kids" are the candidates, campaigners, and electors for one week, and they don't miss a trick.

Boys' State was held at the Sacramento County Fair Grounds and Girls' State on the Davis campus.

 Lots of Luck
 to a real swell girl.
 I've enjoyed knowing through the years of High School.
 hope you always have the best of everything in your life. See you at my wedding in August 2, 1958.
 hope to see you during the summer too.

Senior Steering Committee

The many enjoyable activities of this year's Senior class were made possible mainly by the excellent planning and work of their ambitious Steering Committee. Chosen by election from their senior problems classes, the committee and their three advisors spent long hours deriving a program that would enable every Senior to long remember his last year at Excelsior.

Among the many activities included in the Steering Committee's full program was the supervision of Homecoming, preparing an assembly program, sponsoring the mid-semester dance, selection of the Senior Gift, publicity for the Junior-Senior play, and climaxing their full year with plans for Senior Ditch Day and the traditional all-night party.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

"No more pencils, no more books, no more teachers' dirty looks." While this might well have been the motto of the senior class, when they marched up to get their diplomas in their green and white robes, they and their class officers could look back and see the things which they had accomplished in the four years that they were here.

During this past year the officers worked hard and presented a dance, the Sweetheart Ball. The money they earned bought a cyclo-rama which they presented to the school for the auditorium.

JUNIOR STEERING COMMITTEE

One of the biggest events of the Excelsior High School year was the Junior-Senior Prom. Attended by the seniors and paid for by the juniors, it showed the effort put into it by the Junior Steering Committee.

In the American history classes, representatives were chosen for the Junior Steering Committee. This committee had many problems to face when planning the prom. Among these problems were how to raise money and where to hold the prom, but they came through only to face new problems.

The main one being — What color should the senior sweaters be

This past year the Sophomore Steering Committee accomplished many things, planning and executing assemblies dances.

Chosen from the world history classes, the committee had problems along with their fun. One of the ways in which they raised money to accomplish dances was to sell cake to the starving Student Body of Excelsior High School during snack time.

Along with Mr. W. Kahm's help the members of this committee also chose their junior rings. This was no easy task, to be sure, since they had to make up the minds of several hundred fellow class members.

FRESHMAN STEERING COMMITTEE

In September of 1957 the freshman class entered Excelsior High School. After they were settled in their council classes, they got down to the business of choosing representatives for the Freshman Steering Committee.

After the class officers were chosen, the Freshman Steering Committee started their work for the year. The first item on their agenda was to raise money for the class treasury. They did this by selling class membership cards and donuts.

The Freshman Steering Committee also helped plan the assemblies put on by the members of their class. They ended the year by choosing next year's officers.

ANNUAL STAFF

1957's El Aviator was late due to floods in Texas. 1958's El Aviator was in danger of being late from floods in Los Angeles, late copy, people not showing up for pictures, and deadlines. Phil Spears was a harrassed Editor-in-Chief, and the staff was in an all-round tizzy. But—ah-h-h—the El Aviator was completed and brought to you, "The Student Body."

ANNUAL PHOTOGRAPHY

As a vital part of the El Aviator staff, annual photography played a major role. Many of the photographs seen here can be attributed to this group.

As each picture was taken, the photographer took into careful consideration lighting, group sizes and contrast.

"This Is Your Life" was brought to you through the courtesy of Excelsior High School. We are very happy to say that this year's advisor was Mrs. E. Troup. Working along with the advisor was first semester Editor-in-Chief Loyd Percy and second semester Editor Carolyn Bridges. A hearty group of thirteen reporters and page editors made this publication possible.

With the efforts of Mr. M. King, advisor, and Marlys Paxman and Gail Anthony co-editors, and their staff, Trial Flights appeared on campus again this year, its twenty-second spring. Its appearance delighted all members of Pilotville; especially those students who received awards for their contributions.

Edited and written entirely by students, Trial Flights is truly a product of the Student Body of Excelsior.

"Readin', writin', and 'rithmetic—"

Although the Future Teachers are far from being the largest club on campus, the club is rich in opportunities for anyone who has thoughts about becoming a teacher.

As in previous years the highlight of the year's activity program was the opportunity to teach in the many elementary schools in Norwalk and El Mirada. Conference trips and guest speakers rounded out a full activity program.

SECOND LUNCH CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays during both lunch periods were the times when the members of Pilotville, interested in their own Christian spiritual education, met together in a common fellowship. Their activities included: guest speakers, movies, Bible charades, quiz games and a Bible-memory verse contest. Also they held an evening social about every two months to promote additional harmony.

Flagtwirlers

As with the body, the school spirit was shown with the arm and feet motions of the five flagtwirlers. While music was played, their stunts were performed at the rallies and all of the games. In their short green skirts they dressed as Ivy-Leaguers, and were headed by Genevieve McPheeters.

Mrs. Dettman

You've heard the old saying "the hand is quicker than the eye." Well, this was true for Excelsior this year. For the Majorettes' batons flew around their fingers like greased lightning. When they marched on a field or in front of a judges' stand, they held their heads high and lifted their knees almost to the sky in praise of Excelsior's honor.

These seven girls were headed by Shirley Cox, a junior.

Drill Team

The Drill Team of Excelsior was fifty-two strong this past year, but after weeks of work grew weaker. Led by Dorene "Tex" Nunley and her two assistants, Gloria Lopez and Rose Marie McDonald, they appeared at all home football games, and assorted parades and other shows including television and P.T.A. programs. They were directed by Miss Charleen Kime (later known as Mrs. Dittman), who was at Excelsior for her first year.

Singing their way into the hearts of the Student Body were the members of the A'Cappella Choir. Under the baton of Mr. C. Lowe, they "sang for their supper" on and off campus. Among the many programs they participated in were: Homecoming, Christmas Program, a special Thanksgiving Program, Spring Swing, and in various club programs in and around the community.

Choir officers were: President, Clydene Adams; Vice President, Dusti Abrams; Secretary, Dorene Nunley; and in charge of robes was Bonnie Bennett.

Lyric Club

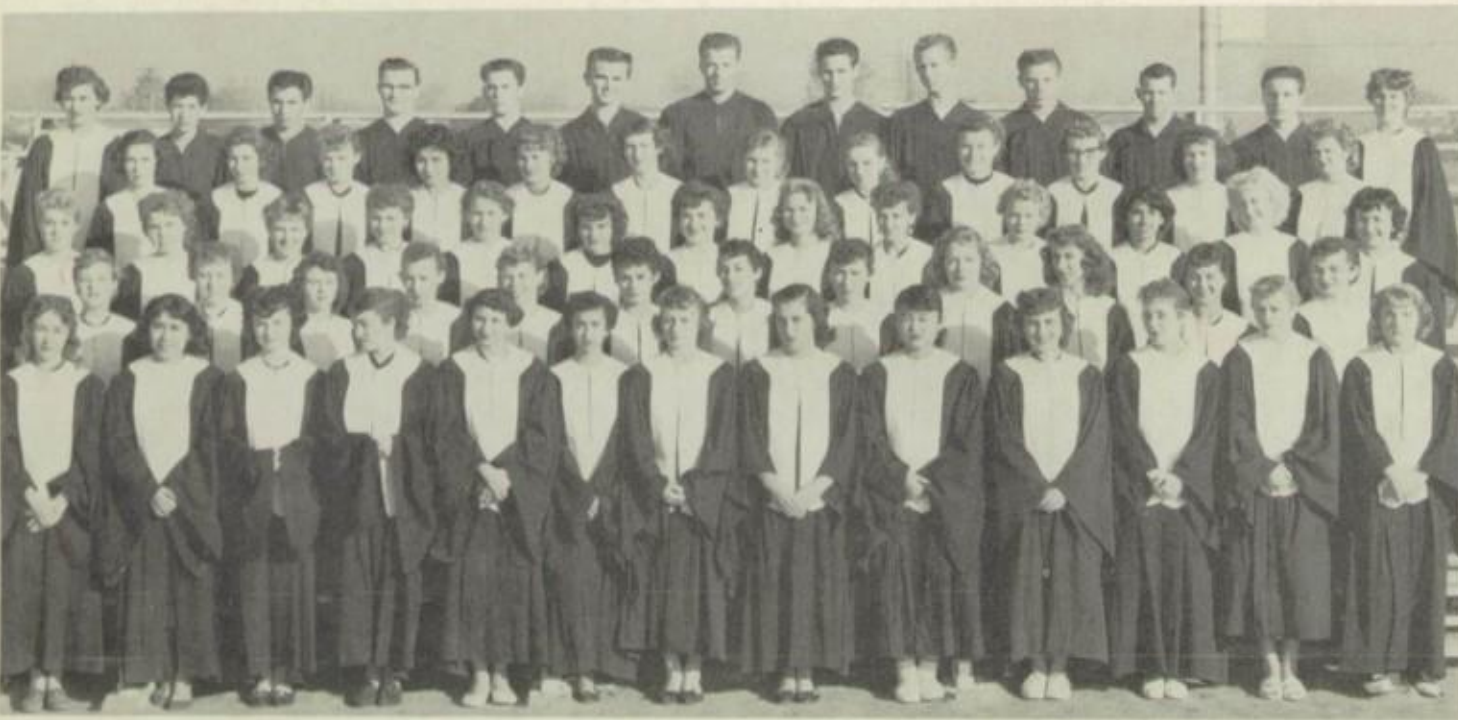

Under the direction of Mr. C. Lowe, the Lyric Club once again had a successful year. Singing at assemblies and festivals were some of the important items on this year's Lyric Club program. The Lyric Club is composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, many of which hope to join the A Cappella Choir in future years.

"Practice makes perfect" might well have been the motto of the Mixed Glee Club this past year. Taught by Mr. C. Lowe, Mixed Glee acted as a preparatory and building group for more advanced work. Its purpose was to teach the basic rudiments and the language of music, not to perform.

When these girls came into Excelsior's atmosphere one of their first electives was to join this club. Under the direction of Mr. C. Castiglione they strived for quality of voice, to carry them up to the other more advanced singing groups.

Judy Mitchell presided as President; Vice President, Sandy Kokel; Earlene, Judad, Secretary; and Donna Harper, Treasurer. Acting as advisors were Mrs. K. Roth and Mrs P. Deull.

The E.B.B. held a Spring Party in May to climax the year.

THE BAND TROPHY

The Student Body's heart skipped a beat that beautiful day in May when the Excelsior Pilot Band brought home the sweepstakes trophy from the Lakewood Pan-American Parade.

It was the largest trophy ever won by the band. It was on display in the band's show case in the auditorium.

As the hearts beat away in the Excelsior Student Body the sound becomes the thump of the drums, and the Pilot Band goes marching by, preparing for another parade or for a half time show at a football game.

Throughout the halls the spirit of the game is created from the beating of a drum to the blast of a trumpet.

The band's work never seemed to be done. You could see Mr. Q. Young yelling, "Get back in line," each day or "Get that mouse out of your horn."

Not only did the band perform at the Excelsior football games but they performed for the Cerritos Junior College games, since Cerritos had no band of its own.

The band performed at various parades and concerts throughout the year. They won first place in the Pioneer Day Parade in Norwalk and in the Huntington Beach Santa Claus Parade. Other parades were Arcadia, Long Beach All-Western Band Review, Fontana, Lakewood, and Orange County Fair. It performed at the Junior-Senior Play and selected members played for the Spring Swing.

HOMECOMING QUEEN AND PRINCESSES

It was half time during our excitingly victorious Homecoming Game. The day had been filled with activity and the stands were overflowing with the excited alumni, to whom the entire day had been dedicated.

Mr. Eissler was desperately trying to direct the big, beautiful green and white float between the goal posts and toward the center of the field. The crowd waited and strained anxiously. Who was our Homecoming Queen for 1957? We were soon rewarded, for Martha Gamboa and her lovely princesses, Elaine Abrams, Margie Schlarman, Clydene Adams, and Pat Vigil were soon the center of attraction.

Math Club

The Math Club under the supervision and guidance of Miss C. Ling, held regular meetings to discuss many mathematical topics.

One of the many exciting events was the mathematical field day held at Occidental College.

To be eligible for Math Club, a second semester sophomore must have had an "A" average in math, a junior a "B" average, and a senior must have had to have been in trigonometry.

The top student in math was given a fifty dollar scholarship by the club.

National Math Club

The National Math Club was a new club on campus this past year. It was initiated under the supervision of Miss C. Ling with 27 members.

One of the most important events of the year was the mathematics field day held at Occidental College.

Members of this club must have had a "B-plus" average in math and a "B" average in all other classes.

Science Club

Sputnik, space, and spiders were three of the topics discussed in Science Club.

The Science Club under the supervision and guidance of Mr. T. U. Hawley and John Frazier, president, met on Mondays to do experiments and to have discussions in science.

One of the events the club attended was the demonstration of the million-volt laboratory at the California Institute of Technology.

ROW 1: F. Ramirez, T. Butler. ROW 2: K. Frazer, T. U. Hawley, B. Eleden, C. Magnes. ROW 3: S. Zebold, V. Tyree, C. Vuitel, P. Buell, H. Lee.

Chess Club

Through the well-rounded activity program offered to the Excelsior Student Body, a club was planned to suit each individual's need. The alert and strategic-minded chess player was able to participate in the activities of the Chess Club. Under the direction of Mr. J. Stein, the Chess Club, through a process of elimination selected a team which successfully participated in many interschool tournaments.

Radio Club

As each student's interests and personality differs, clubs on campus must be varied to provide adequate activities for every individual.

The boy interested in the field of electronics found the Radio Club, under the direction of Mr. Light, well suited to his interests. This club, with regular work meetings, delved deeper into the mechanics of radio, television, and ham operation than regular class work could allow.

Industrial Arts

The whirring of machinery in the shops or the silence of the drafting room were familiar things to an industrial arts student. Students who were interested joined the Industrial Arts Club, whose purpose was to promote a better understanding of industry and engineering.

One of the most interesting events of their year was the visit to the Mercury-Lincoln plant in Rivera, where they followed an auto through the actual process of assembly.

Under the leadership of Mr. J. Thomas, advisor, and Le Roy Holmes, president, the club held regular meetings.

ROW 1: J. Rogers, D. Jacobson, F. Hampers, T. Pettijohn, J. Crevas. ROW 2: J. Shodford, M. Paxman, J. Vencowsky, V. Hall. ROW 3: J. Arnett, J. Frazier, L. Overholt, C. Robinson, D. Noggle. ROW 4: J. Future Farmers of America

"Work that plow, lift that bale."

This might well have been the motto of the Future Farmers of America. For theirs is the chosen job of a farmer.

Working along with their advisor, Mr. W. Baumgartner, the boys learned the basic fundamentals of agriculture.

They also attended several fairs and exhibits where they took honors.

Future Nurses of America

Helping the disabled, caring for the sick, and making life easier for the diseased; these were among the duties performed by nurses the world over in the year 1957-1958.

On the Excelsior campus, the Future Nurses Club strived to do just such things. Also on the past year's agenda was the Orthopedic Hospital Fund which, along with the Girls' League and the Student Body, maintained a bed in the hospital for an entire year.

The Future Nurses also played an important part in the March of Dimes campaign on the campus.

International Relations Club

Have you ever traveled to a foreign country? Would you like to?

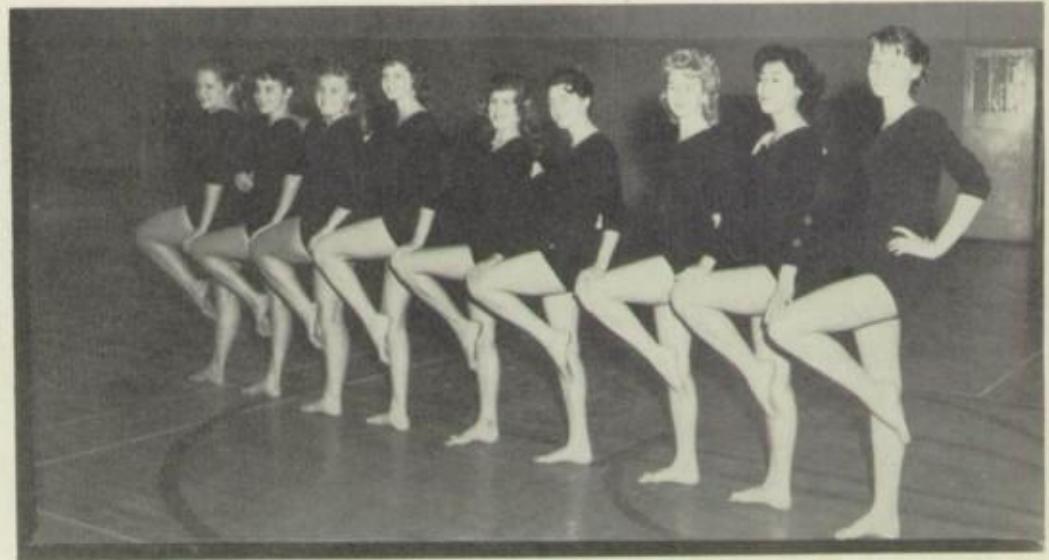

The International Relations Club, one of the largest organizations on campus, endeavored to take their members as close as possible through movies, slides, and foreign correspondence.

Exchange students gave lectures, and answered many questions for the members of the club.

M. Reid, R. Rodela, L. Bright, D. Calvin, L. Kipper, M. Roberts, M. Gates, R. Pacheco, J. Lynn, G. Schapper.

Making its first appearance on the Pilot campus this past year was Talent Club.

One purpose for organizing this club was to insure talent for the many school events. On hand to perform in the different activities were singers, dancers, and specialty acts.

Thespians

Being named after Thespian, the reputed founder of Greek drama, the Excelsior Thespians had a lot to live up to. They endeavored to do so with the advisory counsel of Mrs. C. Appleton and the leadership of their president, Elaine Abrams. As a group they attended a number of various programs staged in the Los Angeles area. Then too, one evening in January the members put on a one act play, proving Pilotville's interest in drama.

ROW 1: President E. Abrams, Vice President P. Vigil. ROW 2: Secretary L. Bates, Treasurer C. Carson. ROW 3: Director of Activities D. Loft.

Stage Crew

"The show must go on!"

While students were performing on the stage, the members of the Stage Crew were working equally as hard to keep the show going.

Stage lighting, set building, and make-up were among the many duties performed by the Stage Crew.

Incidentally, the job of keeping the auditorium clean also goes to the Stage Crew, headed by Mr. R. Frazier.

German Club

"Sprechen sie Deutsch?" A familiar saying among German Club members, meaning: "Do you speak German?"

To qualify for this club a student must have had or was taking German.

At monthly meetings they conversed strictly in German. During these times they gave speeches, corresponded with pen pals, and planned for future events.

It is interesting to note that every year a select group chosen by Mr. H. Reimann, advisor, attended a language convention held at Occidental College.

Spanish Club

"Silencio por favor." It is the time to turn the spotlight on another outstanding club on the Excelsior High School campus, "The El Matadores."

Under the leadership of Senor A. de Heras, the Spanish Club has achieved another outstanding year. The club members attended the annual Padua Hills Festival. At the club meetings they were shown slides on Mexico.

"Parlez-vous Francais?" Second year French students that could readily reply with, "Oui, Madame, je parle Francais," or translated to "yes, Madam, I speak French," were eligible to join one of the interesting foreign language clubs on campus.

The French Club enjoyed many activities pertaining to the customs, culture and language of France. The goal of this club, as told by Mrs. Hessick was, "to stimulate a lasting influence among students of French language towards knowing a country deeper than only its speech."

Future Homemakers of America

The dream of many a girl on the Excelsior campus is to "hook" a man and get married.

But the girls in the Future Homemakers of America are already one step ahead of the dreamers. For during this past year they have learned many skills which will help them become better homemakers in the years to come.

With the help of Mrs. McCarthy the girls participated in several contests. Among these was the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Contest, which was won by Genevieve McPheeters.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

Starting off a year of activity for the Future Business Leaders of America was Mr. R. Eissler, advisor and Genevieve McPheeters, president. During the first semester F.B.L.A. co-sponsored a candy sale, and sent delegates to the Southern Section Conference in Anaheim.

Gail Anthony was elected president for the second semester. The annual State Convention at Fresno and the Senior Banquet, held at the Silver Saddle Inn, were the highlights of the second semester.

National Forensic League

Another busy year of speech and debate tournaments and many social activities has passed for the active National Forensic League. This prominent club on campus, under direction of Mr. William Lewis, again brought home many honors throughout the year. Members enjoyed a full year of competition in debate and individual events as well as outside social activities, highlighting the year's end by the annual N.F.L. banquet.

A figure walks silently through the halls. He looks like Einstein contemplating the theory of relativity, he sounds like a hushed Elvis, and everyone thinks he has escaped from Metropolitan—but ahh—it is only an N.F.L.er practicing for the many tournaments.

Tournaments attended were: S.C. Tourney, District Tourney, Redlands, Dominguez, and countless others. Advisor was former Pilot student Mr. William Lewis.

California Scholastic Federation

The brains gathered and five-syllable words were a dime a dozen. Mr. Everly was top man on the totem pole. His assistants in advising the membership were Mr. M. King, Miss E. Williamson, and Miss C. Scherzer.

Receiving this advice first hand was L. Holmes, first semester president and L. Chavez, second semester president.

C.S.F. was the only club offering a lifetime membership in the form of Seal Bearer or Phi Beta Kappa.

Christmas Concert

"A Little Child Shall Lead Them"

"Noel"

"Grand Finale"

December 13th, 1957, Excelsior High School's stage became the sixteenth century for the annual Christmas Concert. Participating were three singing groups: Madrigals, A Cappella Choir, and Lyric Club. The setting was an old English manor house with the lords and their guests portrayed by Excelsior's singing groups, directed by Mr. C. Lowe, with the costuming by Miss P. Gage, and scenery by Mr. R. Frazier.

Junior Senior Play

"This here is Grovers Corners. It's not much of a town, but it is our town."

"Our Town" was the play which the faculty advisors chose for the Junior-Senior Play. Written by Thornton Wilder, a popular American writer, it depicted life in a small town in New Hampshire.

Try-outs were held in January and the cast was selected shortly thereafter. The cast, working with Mrs. Appleton, rehearsed after school.

After several weeks of rehearsing, the play was presented on February 28 and March 1 to enthusiastic audiences.

Junior Red Cross

This was one of the most active organizations on the Pilot campus. They took an important part in the Red Cross Drive. They also participated in the annual "Toys for Tots" drive.

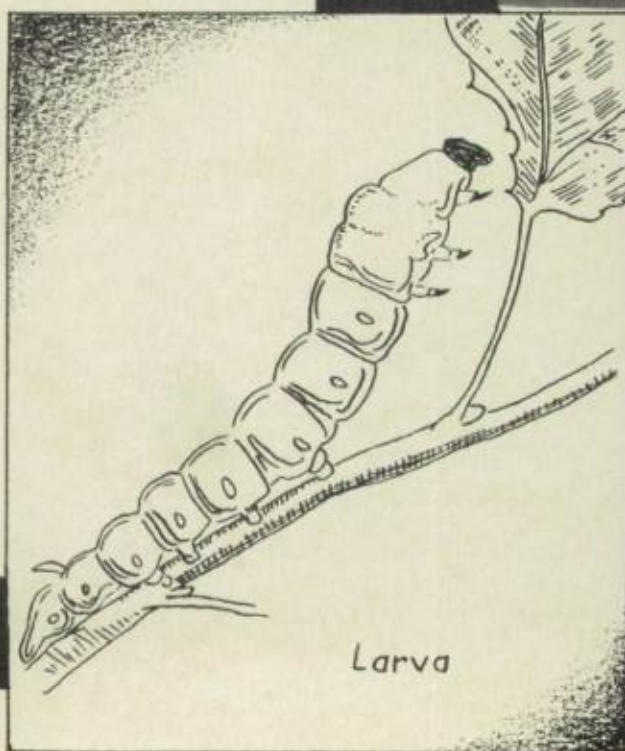

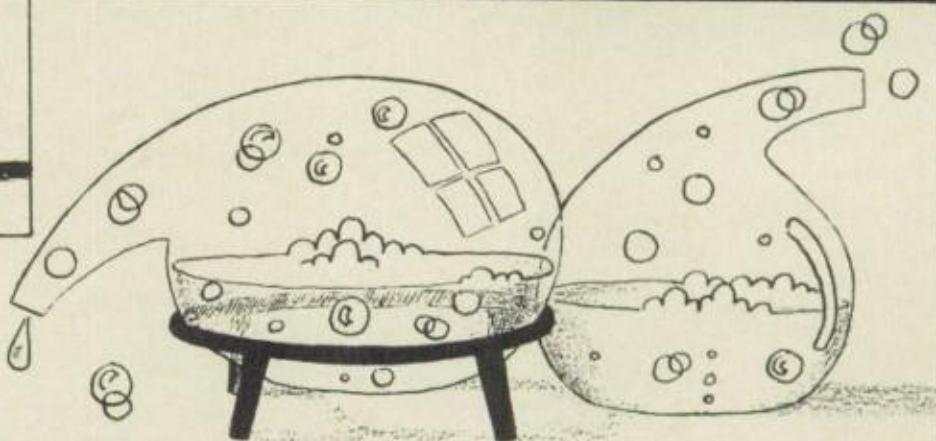

One way the Junior Red Cross made money was by selling donuts to students during snack.

The members of this club were identified by their red and white striped jumpers and their white blouses.

These members endeavored to help bring happiness to the underprivileged through sending favors to different hospitals during the special holidays.

Girls' Letter Club

Girls' Letter Club is made up of members of G.A.A. who have completed eight full quarters of activity in G.A.A. without missing more than three days per quarter.

They were responsible for publicity for the G.A.A. Mother and Daughter Banquet, and were strong supporters of all G.A.A. and Girls' League activities.

When they have completed eight quarters they have earned their white letter sweaters.

Girls' Letter Club has one of the largest memberships they have had in quite a few years.

Play-days, regular after school sports and highlighting a wonderful Mother-Daughter Banquet was the agenda of the First Semester G.A.A. Cabinet. Through the planning of Sherry Nolan, president; Julie McDonald, vice president; Rose Marie McDonald, secretary; Sharon Cook, historian; Marilyn Carlson and Sue Rindfleisch, Publicity Officers, and with the help of various sport managers the girls were able to enjoy a fine recreational program this year.

These girls with the help of their sponsor, Mrs. Morgan, planned and put on the Hobo Holiday. They also carried on the elections for the first semester officers for next year.

The G.A.A. tennis team consisted of 10 girls who were chosen on their outstanding ability.

During the year, the team represented Excelsior in G.A.A. play days against other schools in our league.

Team tennis has been a very important part in the G.A.A. activities this past year.

Tournament Tennis

Out getting spirit and strength in their serving arms, were these thirty girls in Tournament Tennis. During the first two quarters they were competing for top honors. These six winners of the doubles tournament were able to participate in the Tennis play days with the Tennis Team during the fourth quarter. These girls had the spirit to go out after school on their own time and be instructed by Mrs. Peterson.

Yell Leading

A very important part of the Student Body is the spirit, for without it something is lost. In G.A.A. Yell Leading girls learned how to lead the various school yells in order to qualify as Student Body Yell Leaders.

During the third quarter the girls could be seen jumping and yelling on Senior Square every Wednesday and Thursday night.

The prospective flag twirlers and majorettes came out every Wednesday and Thursday so they could learn and perfect the routines taught to them by the Student Body Flag Twirlers and Majorettes. The group was under the guidance of Mrs. Dettman.

Our Excelsior Swim Team, coached by D. Gardner, and managed by S. Erdmann, copped many honors during the past year.

At their first and second meets they swam away with all the prizes. In their tournaments with Fullerton, however, they faced defeat.

Marie Hackett, Senior, holds all the school records for 1956-1958, with the exception of the 25 yard butterfly, which is held by Ella Gehricke, Sophomore.

At the beginning of the second quarter, William Tell would have certainly turned over in his grave had he seen the limited skill of the G.A.A. archers. As the quarter progressed, each girl became more skilled in the art of archery.

The girls were instructed by their advisor, Miss R. Peterson, and her assistant, Yvonne Wells.

N. Michael, J. McDonald

The sound of girls yelling "Fore" was a familiar sound on the Girls' P.E. Field during G.A.A. Golf. It was held during the fourth quarter.

The top three golfers were decided by a putting contest, which required a trip to a driving range.

Miss J. Johnston was instructor and assisting her were Sharon Owen and Nancy Michael.

Sports

Volleyball

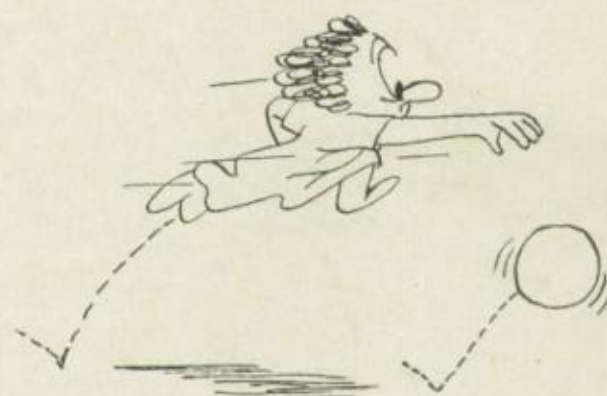

Screams, shouts and laughter were heard the first quarter on the volleyball courts, made by girls out for G.A.A. volleyball.

These girls might have been trying to score just one more point to win the tournament and be eligible for the play day.

Under the direction of Miss Jean Johnston and managers Camille Grimm and Nancy Keller they were out to have fun and to build their skill and sportsmanship.

Basketball

"Foul" may be the famous last words of many referees.

The G.A.A. basketball teams under the guidance of manager, Dennille Clark attended many play days. One of which was held at Artesia on March 17 and another at Bellflower.

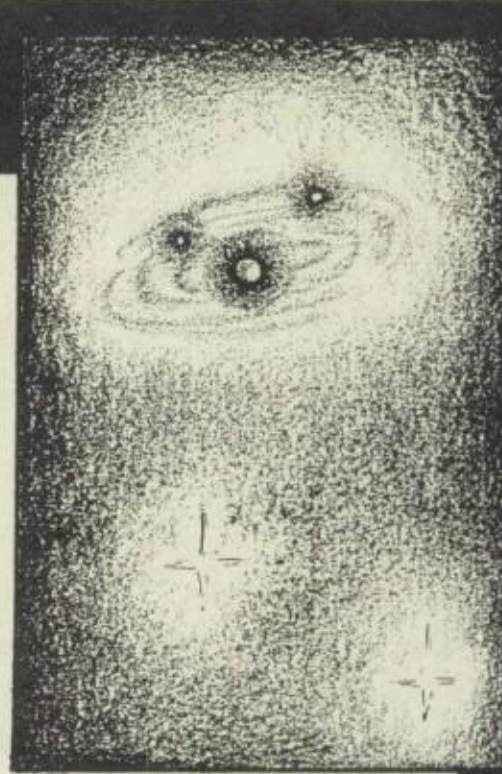

There were many teams consisting of seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen.

The teachers guiding the players were Miss Johnston, Miss Peterson, and Miss Gardner.

A new league and five new opponents greeted Coach Les Billinger's Excelsior Varsity Football squad. Although the Pilots were scheduled to play nine games, the annual tilt with Long Beach Wilson had to be cancelled because of a flu attack hitting members of both squads.

Excelsior opened the season with a big 27 to 13 win over Paramount. The following week, the Pilots played a hard fought tie with the Sailors from Newport Harbor High School. Following this game the Excelsior squad played another tie with Long Beach Millikan High.

Going into league play, Excelsior rolled over Santa Fe, 14 to 0. The following week, the Pilots suffered their first loss of the season to California High. Remaining games saw Excelsior win over El Rancho in the mud and over Bellflower in the final twelve seconds of the game. The last game of the season was lost to Montebello, 13 to 7.

Coach Billinger was assisted by Coaches Tom Lyon, George Curtis, Don Berberet, and Paul Dearth.

A good block helps score a touchdown.

A hard hitting line and a backfield with blinding speed led the Excelsior Junior Varsity Football squad to one of the best seasons in recent years. The Pilots, who captured the league title for the first time in many years, started the season off in a winning fashion and steam-rolled over both league and non-league opponents.

The Pilots were coached by Coach Don Berberet, former Loyola University star. Coach Berberet, along with his assistant, Mr. Paul Dearth, kept the Pilots on the winning track throughout the year.

Excelsior was led throughout the season by quarterback and signal caller, Jim Eldridge. In leading the Pilots to their great success, Eldridge often called on speedy backfield stars Stan McIntyre and Rex Burrell. A stout line opened the holes for the Pilot backs. The squad was composed of mainly juniors, sophomores and freshmen.

The Excelsior Bee Squad, coached by Bryan Robinson, rolled to a season record of five wins against three losses in the eight game season. The Pilot middle compiled a league record of three wins against two losses. The most valuable player award went to Rick Alvarado. Gerald Brock was chosen the most valuable lineman, while the most valuable back was Bill Fowler.

Excelsior downed such powerful Bee teams as Paramount, Long Beach Millikan, Santa Fe, El Rancho, and Bellflower. The Bees were defeated by Newport, California, and Montebello Highs.

The season was one of the most successful for the Bees in recent years. Mr. Robinson, former varsity mentor, was assisted by new line coach, Ed Carrigan, former Excelsior student. The Pilots were sparked throughout the year by quarterback Joe Cuevas, back Nick Tippings, and Rick Alvarado was leading scorer and break-away threat.

Cee Football

An overall record of four wins and four losses was the result of the football season for the Excelsior Cee pigskin squad. The Pilots opened the league season with three practice wins under their belts, but the roof caved in as the tough San Gabriel Valley League opponents rolled over the Excelsior team. The Pilots defeated Artesia, Sierra, Newport Harbor, and arch rival Montebello during the course of the season. Losses were dealt the Pilot smallmen by Bellflower, El Rancho, California, and Santa Fe.

The Cees, coached by Mr. Jim Daniel and his assistant, Mr. Alcala, chose backfield star Bob Duncan as their most valuable player. Most valuable back award went to Donn Baker while Bob Rubio was elected the most valuable lineman.

The Pilots gained area wide fame as an explosive squad. The Excelsior team ran from the powerful single wing attack.

Former high school and college star Don Berberet blew his whistle on another crack Junior Varsity cage crew. Berberet, who has been coaching the Pilot J.V.'s for the past several years, once again opened the squad to all juniors, sophomores, and freshmen.

Excelsior's Junior Varsity Basketball squad, although in no official league, played the same opponents as the Pilot varsity crew. The Pilots went through an average season, as they had few returning lettermen, since most of last year's team moved up to the varsity squad.

Pilot Middies racking up extra points for the win.

Rex Burrell proving his versatility in the broad jump.

Excelsior sported another great track squad this year as many of the stars from last year's Cee team moved up to the Pilot Bee squad. The Pilot Middies worked under the tutelage of Coach Jack Newman. The Excelsior squad was in its first year of competition of the San Gabriel Valley League, and faced the same schools as did the varsity cindermen.

Melton wins the 100.

A mighty heave.

Cee Track

This past year Excelsior High School had one of the best Cee Track teams in the school's history. Paced by such outstanding cindermen as Bob Melton, Bob Duncan, Dick Sakamoto, and Arnie Abrams the smallmen compiled a fine seasonal record.

Much valuable experience was gained by the members of the Cee squad. This year's team was coached by Tom Lyon.

ROW 1: B. Melton, D. Sakamoto, D. Emerson, F. Puera, B. Watkins, J. Martin, G. Gregory. ROW 2: L. Crouch, D. Mobily, D. Shoors, A. Abrams, B. Duncan, R. Inboden, D. Bowman, R. Masoner, M. Jimenez, D. Rawlins.

Cross Country

Competing in what is considered the toughest league for cross-country, the Excelsior Pilots once again proved their superiority in this field. Yielding to no one, they swept the San Gabriel League Championship and into the C.I.F. finals, where they took second place. From there the team traveled to Fresno for the state championship, placing third in the State!

Awards

The material from two consecutive Frosh championship squads and one Junior Varsity title winner, developed into varsity players this year by Coach Jim Daniel fielded an outstanding baseball squad for the Pilot school. Excelsior, which has won the Frosh title for the last two years and is the defending Junior Varsity Champion, fielded a team composed almost completely of former Frosh and Junior Varsity players.

Excelsior played a large schedule which included competition in several baseball tournaments as well as league play. The Pilot squad was composed largely of players who will be returning next year. Jim Angotti led the Pilots.

Coach Bryan Robinson, returning to the helm of the Pilot Junior Varsity Baseball squad, fielded a formidable team which set a second straight league championship as their goal. The Pilots, who played the same schedule as the Bee Varsity horsehiders, dropped many teams in the dust in a quest for another outstanding season. The squad was composed mainly of players up from last year's crack Frosh squad.

Varsity Tennis

Coach George Curtis opened play in the new league with an inexperienced squad which wound up the season with a fairly good won-lost record. The Pilot racquetmen, who were hit tremendously hard last year by graduation, had trouble getting their first win of the season but bounced back after an opening win to dump a number of squads.

The squad developed a number of players from last year's Junior Varsity team to lead the team in the matches. In addition, Coach Curtis started on a rebuilding program to establish players on the team who will be eligible for additional competition next year. With much experience gained throughout the season, the Pilots will have a formidable squad next year. Top man on the squad was Richard Dicker.

Gymnastics

Wright on the rings.

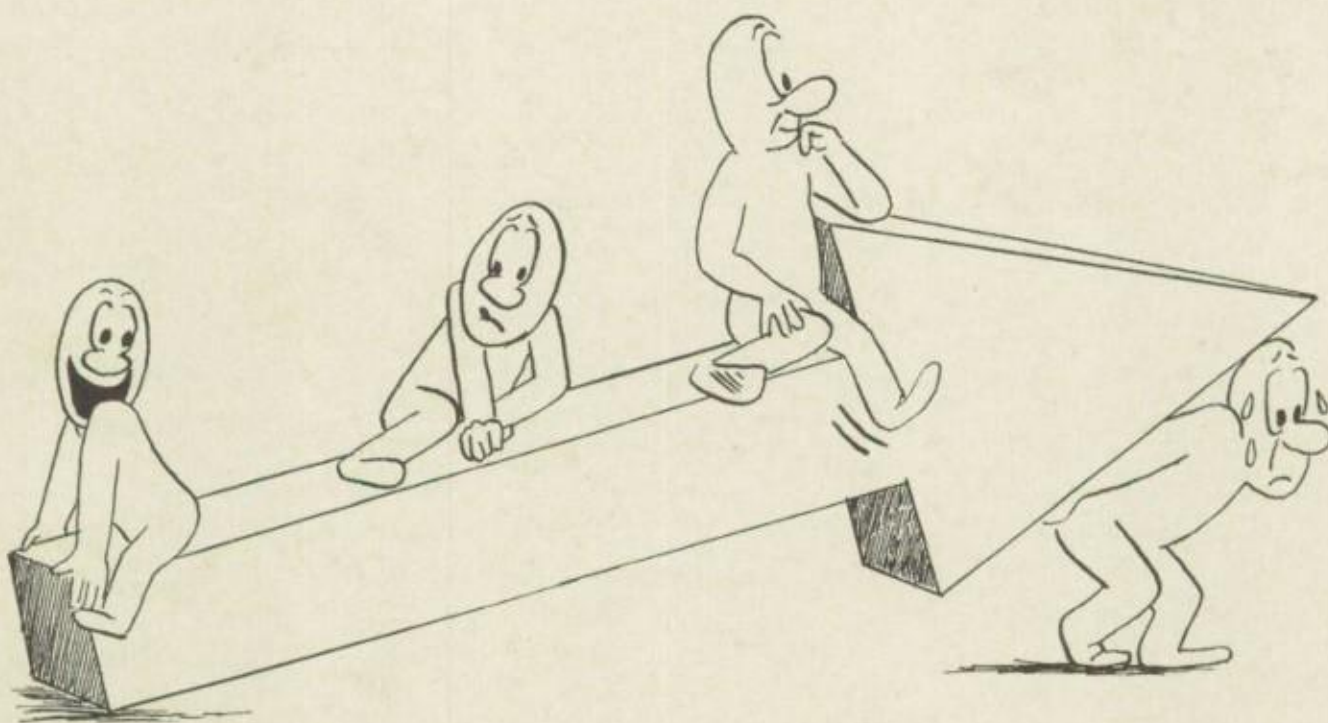

A great milestone was accomplished during the past year at Excelsior as the Pilot institution fielded a gymnastics squad for the first time in team interscholastic competition. The Pilots were coached by Mr. George Curtis. Excelsior placed in the league finals and participated in the C.I.F. meet. Several stars paced the Pilot squad.

I wish you all
wonderful girls
I have met every thing you do. You with really deserve such a thing

Good luck to a sharp girl
and make last of money
this summer
Matti Padbury

Bonnie
I am real sweet girl who I have enjoyed
knowing these past years
Best of luck to you always a friend always
Popell
Lemir

So one of my cutest and nicest Lemmings of the class of '58. I'm really enjoyed knowing
you. And Bonnie
I really mean
one of the nicest girls and don't know anyone
The Best of luck always
